Study Descriptions:

Option #1: Sermon on the Mount with Jen Wilkin (9 weeks)

Matthew's gospel opens with three chapters containing Jesus' longest recorded message – a sermon given to His disciples early in His ministry to articulate what the life of a Christ-follower would look like. In His sweeping depiction of kingdom citizenship, Jesus utters some of the most familiar passages in all of Scripture. Most of us have only encountered the Sermon on the Mount in fragments, considering its subdivisions as complete teachings in their own right – a study on blessedness, a reflection on the Lord's Prayer, a meditation on lilies of the field. But what if we navigated these three chapters as they were originally heard: as one cohesive, well-ordered message, intended to challenge us to think differently about repentance, salvation, and sanctification?

Join us in this nine-week video study led by Jen Wilkin to examine this important sermon of Jesus. The workbook is an important part of gaining a personal understanding of these chapters of scripture, as it walks you through five days of personal study each week, leading up to the video teaching at the end of each week. Seat yourself on a mountainside to learn at the feet of Jesus. Ask for ears to hear and a heart to respond to the teaching of our King.

Option #2: Stepping Up: A Journey through the Psalms of Ascent with Beth Moore (7 weeks)

Traveling pilgrims sang Psalms 120-134 both on the way to the great festivals of the LORD, and as key elements of the worship at those festivals. Just as a song or poem can express feelings of fear, doubt, hope, and joy, these 15 psalms model how we can voice our own petitions and praises to our God, who is always available and ready to hear us.

Explore the major feasts of Israel and journey with Beth Moore through this video study. Themes of unity, joy, gratitude, redemption, repentance, the power of blessings, facing ridicule, and more are explored in detail. Modern-day believers in Jesus Christ can learn much from these treasured Psalms in their journey toward greater intimacy with God.

The workbook walks through the studying of each Psalm with a three-step approach: Say it, Work it, Pray it. Each week you will spend two days on one Psalm as you work through the five days of homework.
